
2008 SEICAA Annual Report

South Eastern Idaho Community Action Agency
Helping People. Changing Lives.

Mission Statement:

SEICAA is dedicated to providing opportunities and support for individuals and communities to thrive and reach their fullest potential, promoting self-sufficiency and greater economic independence through services, education, affordable housing, and training.

Helping People

Board of Directors

Community Action Agencies are governed by tripartite Boards of Directors comprised of equal parts low-income representatives, members from the private sector, and local publically elected officials. This diverse composition assures that the Board is representative of the community and that the interests of each of the sectors are met.

SEICAA Funding

SEICAA utilizes Federal and State grants, grants from private and local foundations, donations, and fundraisers to continue serving the Southeastern Idaho Community.

Changing Lives

Community Action Agencies' Core Funding

Community Action Agencies (CAAs) across the nation receive core funding from the Federal Community Services Block Grant (CSBG). CSBG supports the flexible missions of CAAs by funding anti-poverty services in local communities. CSBG provides funding that gives Community Action leaders the time, facilities, and staff to mobilize resources, and plan and implement numerous programs that best meet the needs of each community. SEICAA coordinates multiple programs and leverages additional funds to achieve its mission of creating opportunities to assist low-income people overcome the barriers of poverty and achieve economic independence.

SEICAA received $356,489 in core funding from the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG). In 2008, SEICAA utilized CSBG funds as leverage to raise an additional $986,326 for client services.

Strategic Plan & Mission Update

Mary Chant, CAP Association of Idaho Executive Director facilitated SEICAA staff and Board of Directors through Strategic Planning. Participates outlined goals and objectives to guide the agency over the next five years. The month long process reinforced the direction the Agency's focus. As a result of the Strategic Planning, SEICAA updated its mission statement.

"SEICAA is dedicated to providing opportunity and support for individuals and communities to thrive and reach their fullest potential, promoting self-sufficiency and greater economic independence through services, education, affordable housing, and training."

"If you think of vision and mission as an organization's head and heart, the values it holds are its soul."

Acquisition Housing Program

In November 2007, SEICAA was approached by the City of Pocatello. The City needed help meeting their CDBG goal of providing homeownership opportunities to households at 50% Area Median Income ($26,750 for a family of four). SEICAA signed a development agreement and started the Acquisition/Infill Housing Program. SEICAA prequalified three of the five households for the first five homes. All participants are required to complete Homebuyer's Education, as well as Post-purchase education integrated with Foreclosure Prevention.

Partners for the Program include

- City of Pocatello
- Citizen's Community Bank
- Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle
- Idaho Housing and Finance Association
- Community Frameworks

Process

- Submit a Pre-application.
- Once pre-approved, loan package is submitted to Citizen's Community Bank for approval.
- Upon receiving approval from the bank, applicant accepted into program.
- Sign contract with SEICAA agreeing to purchase home upon completion.
- Complete Homebuyer's Essentials Courses.
- Provide limited "sweat equity" as needed and as is feasible.
- Officially close on completed house.
- Down-payment assistance and sweat equity credit available at closing.

Weatherization Program

SEICAA's Weatherization Program provides energy conservation services to households at or below 125% of federal poverty level in the seven county service area. The Weatherization Program assists qualifying households through funds granted from the U.S. Department of Energy, as well as contracts with Idaho Power and Rocky Mountain Power.

SEICAA's Weatherization Program assists in the reduction of energy consumption by making homes more efficient. Weatherization installs attic floor and wall insulation, completes weather stripping, replaces old heating systems with energy efficient units, installs storm windows, and provides energy conservation education.

...It's critical to remember that energy efficiency is the cheapest, cleanest, and most plentiful clean energy resource in the United States.

Liz Robinson, Energy Coordinating Agency

Energy Assistance Programs

LIHEAP

- 4,421 households received assistance.
- $1,314,008 in economic impact.

Project Warmth

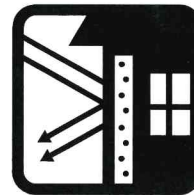

- 99 households received assistance.
- $17,193 in assistance was provided.

Lend-a-Hand Program

- 75 households were assisted with a total of $16,120.

2008 Accomplishments

- 168 homes made more energy efficient
- $2,700 average spent per home

Financial Literacy Education

In 2008, SEICAA started in-house Homebuyer's Education for participants in the Mutual Self-Help Housing Program. Pre and post-purchase education courses were expanded to those participating in Acquisition/Infill Housing, as well as to members of the public.

In December, staff completed the courses needed to become NeighborWorks Center for Homeownership Education and Counseling (NCHC) Certified. SEICAA now provides pre- and post-purchase education, integrated with Foreclosure Prevention training, to all interested in becoming homeowners, or those just wanting a refresher course in budgeting, energy conservation, and/or home maintenance.

SEICAA continued money management, supported by Washington Mutual; and one-on-one credit counseling through the Family Development Specialist. Both financial programs provide assistance to individuals to help them rebuild credit and become homeownership ready.

Financial Literacy Courses are made possible by grants through community partners, including

- Key Bank
- Bank of America
- Washington Mutual

1970

Senior Services

Meals on Wheels

- In 2008, 58,136 meals were delivered to 418 homebound seniors.
- Enables elderly participants to maintain independence while providing a sense of safety.
- Provides "safety checks" to monitor for potential hazards, as well as health and well-being.
- Economic alternative to nursing home care.

The average cost for a Medicaid patient enrolled in Meals on Wheels is $2,190 a year vs. $65,000 per year for a single senior in nursing home care.

Meals on Wheels Funding

Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP)

Volunteer Programs

- RSVP is designed for seniors at least 55 years old who want to "give back" to their community.
- Volunteers donate time to a variety of sites, including Senior Centers, hospitals, police departments, and some deliver meals to homebound citizens.

RSVP Highlights:

- 494 volunteers donated over 64,296 hours.
- 28 mentors devoted 4,023 hours.
- 52 children/youth enrolled as mentees; 24 were children with an incarcerated parent.
- Volunteer hours equate to an economic impact to the Southeast Idaho community of $958,0101.

Youth Mentoring

- Volunteers can be any age, over 18, to mentor a child.
- Mentors spend at least one hour a week with their mentee.
- Mentors help mentees with school work, provide them with expanded experiences and skills, and participate in fun activities.
- Mentors are asked to commit at least one year, as long-term commitments are important to the mentees.

Veteran Services

SEICAA's Veteran Services Program offers assistance to United States Veterans who are, or are in danger of becoming, homeless. Services offered include intensive case management for veterans working toward self-sufficiency. SEICAA case managers are trained in veteran specific issues, and are able to assist veterans by making referrals to appropriate community organizations and services.

- In 2008, 21 veterans received shelter, transitional housing, and case management.
- 6 veterans moved into permanent housing.
- 2 veterans prepared to move into permanent housing.

“Courage is almost a contradiction in terms. It means a strong desire to live taking the form of readiness to die.”

G.K. Chesterton

Jefferson House Transitional Housing

SEICAA's Jefferson House is available to United States Veterans once they are able to live without intensive case management. Jefferson House provides transition housing for up to two years. While at Jefferson House, veterans acquire skills needed to live independently, and strive to reintegrate into the community's mainstream population.

Freedom LZ

SEICAA's on-site shelter is available to homeless United States Veterans. In this program, veterans receive crisis intervention and case management support to help participants find and secure employment, receive referrals to community resources, and other assistance needed to achieve self-sufficiency.

Homeless Stand-down

SEICAA participated in the annual Homeless Stand-down on October 11, 2008. Veteran Services' staff distributed information about the services SEICAA offers. As a result of SEICAA Veteran Services' staff, one veteran was placed in Freedom LZ. This veteran was provided with a warm bed and access to SEICAA services, including case management.

Community Services

Bingham County Food Pantry.

Emergency Food Programs

- SEICAA distributed 4,017 food boxes.
- 2,141 unduplicated households provided with emergency food boxes.
- 681 Holiday boxes distributed.
- Market salvage, "bread program," items distributed 8,272 times to 1,975 unduplicated households.
- 239,469 pounds of USDA Commodities distributed.

Hygiene Closet

In June, SEICAA's Hygiene Closet received a boost from a local family. The Shutes' Family gathered donations totaling over $1,000 and purchased personal items for the SEICAA Hygiene Closet.

- 898 households received assistance with personal hygiene items from the closet.

Feed the Children

Feed the Children returned to Southeastern Idaho for the second time on Saturday September 20. Teleperformance once again selected SEICAA as the recipient organization and sponsored the truck load of food for Southeastern Idaho households.

- 400 households received a box of food and hygiene items.

A child gives Santa a hug at the Bannock Civitan Holiday Party in December.

Bannock Civitan Holiday Party

- Bannock Civitans sponsored the 6th Annual party for the benefit of low-income children in Southeastern Idaho.
- 165 children attended the Holiday Party and received gifts and goodies.
- Bannock Civitans' Pathfinder Snowmobile Club outfitted and took 16 children on a snowmobiling trip.
- Two Century High School Jr. Civitans assisted with the snowmobile trip.

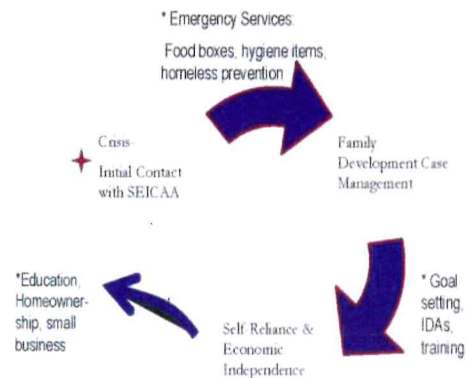

Community Services

Family Development Program

SEICAA's Family Development Program provides one-on-one case management by certified specialists to low-income households seeking self-reliance and economic independence. Family Development Specialists work with families to set long and short term goals, as well as providing assistance in overcoming barriers to goal achievement. Participants work with case managers to make contacts, and seek resources and services in other programs on their path to self-sufficiency.

- 56 households actively participated in case management
- 18 moved onto self-sufficiency

SEICAA Continuum of Care

Working Closet

Bingham County's Working Closet.

The Working Closet provided assistance to qualifying individuals who needed professional attire for a job interview or position.

- 387 total visits to the Working Closet.
- 250 households utilized the donated professional clothing.

School Supplies & Extracurricular Assistance

Due to high living expenses, including energy costs and gasoline, many children in the community needed assistance with school supplies and associated fees.

- 296 households provided with school materials and associated fees for the 2008-2009 school year.

Raymond Lodge Closes

SEICAA's Raymond Lodge closed its door in May. The Lodge offered semi-independent living for chronically mentally ill individuals. At the time of its inception, Raymond Lodge was a unique facility that filled a gap for mentally ill homeless persons. Raymond Lodge individuals worked with the Lodge Coordinator, to learn necessary life skills.

- SEICAA opened Raymond Lodge in 1988 and maintained full capacity for over 18 years.
- Other facilities now provide for the once unmet needs of the mentally ill homeless population.

SEICAA Employee of the Year— Karen Briand

Karen Briand, Bear Lake County Coordinator, received a nomination for employee of the year by her peers. Karen was selected as the 2008 SEICAA Employee of the Year. Karen has been at SEICAA since 2003. Every year, she works with the planning committee for "Golfing Fore Families" charity golf tournament to raise unrestricted funds for those in the Bear Lake Community. Karen played a vital role in recruiting families for the Montpelier Mutual Self-Help Housing Phase I build group, and continues her efforts to recruit for Phase II in Bear Lake county.

Long-time Employee Retires— Linda Shiflet

In May 2008, SEICAA said farewell to Lynda Shiflet. Lynda retired after working at SEICAA for 17 years. Lynda held multiple positions during her tenure, including Community Services Assistant, Family Development Specialist, and Raymond Lodge Coordinator. Lynda served as the SEICAA organizer for the Shop with a Cop Program for more than ten years. She is a wonderful person and we wish her the best of luck and joy in her retirement!

"Thoughts lead on to purposes; purposes go forth in action; actions form habits; habits decide character; and character fixes our destiny."

Tyron Edwards

2008 Friend of SEICAA— Region V Idaho Transportation Department

The Region V Idaho Transportation Department was selected as the 2008 Friend of SEICAA. Region Five ITD demonstrates a strong continued commitment to making a difference in the lives of SEICAA Meals on Wheels participants. While many organizations focus on the needs of children during the Holiday Season, Region V ITD works to ensure that elderly Meals on Wheels participants receive gifts and well wishes for the holiday. SEICAA thanks Region V Idaho Transportation Department for the 200 smiles from the Meals on Wheels clients each and every year!

SEICAA 2008 Business of the Year— Zions Bank

Zions Bank received the 2008 SEICAA Business of the Year award during the Annual Stone Soup Celebration and Fundraiser. Zions has acted as the Corporate Sponsor for the Meals on Wheels "Driving for Dough" Charity Golf Tournament for two years in a row. Zions Bank supports SEICAA's Acquisition Housing Program by acting as the Member Bank for SEICAA's Affordable Housing Program grant through Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle. In addition, each year Zions Bank selects the home of a Meals on Wheels participant to paint and perform yard clean-up. SEICAA thanks the bank and its employees for their outstanding support.
